Chief, Editorial Division
Chief, Special Reports Division
Liaison Officer
Chief, FBIS

24 September 1948

1. On 24 September 1948 the Assistant Director for Operations telephoned me and stated that he had just conferred with Commander Rawlins of ONE as a result of a letter which had been written by ECA to the Director requesting that ECA be notified of any information we had that indicated an attempt to sabotage the ECA program in Europe. [redacted] directed that FBIS be on the lookout for any such information, and that immediately upon receipt [redacted] of ONE be notified.

2. The following action is directed: The Chief, Editorial Division and the Chief, Special Reports Division are alerted to this requirement. They are directed to bring any such information to the immediate attention of the Liaison Officer, or in his absence, to telephone [redacted] directly, and also to include such information in our regularly published reports, if appropriate. The Liaison Officer, or in his absence, the Chief, Editorial Division or the Chief, Special Reports Division, will inform [redacted], ONE, by the most expeditious means of any such information received.
